

SAVE THE DATE: Saturday, November 14, 2009

8 a.m. – 3 p.m.

National Labor College, Silver Spring, MD

International Perspectives and Interactive Methods An Active Classroom Seminar

A unique opportunity to interact with fellow civic educators from former Soviet countries: Russia, Mongolia, Armenia, Bulgaria, Georgia and Kazakhstan

- Lectures on comparative government by Russian and American scholars
- Model lessons on democratic development and forms of government by Mongolian and American teachers
- Ideas for infusing comparative and interactive approaches into a range of courses and Project Citizen activities
- Breakout sessions for in-depth discussion with international colleagues
- Suggested internet resources and free classroom materials, including a DVD on student movements around the world
- Applications for international civic education exchange opportunities
- Documentation of professional development credits
- Hot breakfast and lunch provided, as well as reimbursement for travel costs

Sponsored by the Civitas Eurasia Network

REGISTRATION FORM

Confirmation letter and directions will follow.

Name: _____

School Name: _____ Grade level: _____

Preferred Mailing Address : _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Fax to: Marcie Taylor-Thoma, Ph.D., Maryland State Department of Education, 410/333-2379